

Yogen Früz Expands Into Syracuse

by Mary McCombs
Published Mar 16, 2009

Yogen Früz, the largest international chain of frozen yogurt, plans to open eight new stores in the Syracuse market.

The first retail store is scheduled to open in early May at a mall in Clay and the second at Shoppingtown Mall in Dewitt in early June.

The two new Yogen Früz locations are expected to bring 24 new full-time and part-time direct jobs to the area.

The first local Yogen Früz store opened at Eastview Mall in Victor.

The frozen treats contain cultures that have been shown to promote a healthy digestive system, plus lower cholesterol.

ajl/yc

© 2009 Time Warner Cable
Rochester, NY
All Rights Reserved