

November 15, 2008

Business briefs

Realtor of the Year named

Tom deManincor, manager of Realty USA's office in Webster, was named Realtor of the Year by the Greater Rochester Association of Realtors at Friday night's Celebration of Excellence dinner at the Riverside Convention Center.

Yogen Früz to open in Victor

Yogen Früz, an international chain of frozen yogurt shops, will open its first location in New York state at Eastview Mall in Victor on Nov. 28. .

The frozen dessert company, based in Toronto, has more than 1,100 shops in 20 countries.

Real estate developer George Traikos plans to open 15 shops in the Rochester area and 100 in upstate New York within the next five years.

3 city lawyers form law firm

Three Rochester lawyers who have been qualified to represent clients in capital murder cases have formed a new criminal-defense law firm.

William T. Easton, Donald M. Thompson and Lawrence L. Kasperek have formed Easton Thompson Kasperek LLP in the Powers Building at 16 W. Main St.

The firm will specialize in criminal trials and appeals in state and federal courts, post-conviction proceedings, habeas corpus petitions, professional conduct investigations, representation of clients who face potential criminal charges and executive clemency petitions.

---